

Hey friend!

This week's newsletter is going to be short and sweet! We received a TON of bad news this week so I've been taking these last couple days pretty slow. I'm not one to apologize for investing in some self-care!

This past weekend Chris and I took a drive through the countryside here in Montgomery County. While I was still feeling positive energy I wrote a post about it on the Blog.

April is here, my friend. So much wind! And so much mud! The temperatures keep rising and I'm really looking forward to the lilies, peonies, and hydrangea come to life. People driving by probably think I'm the weirdest person ever digging through the dead brush! April flowers are so short-lived that I'm always afraid I'm going to miss it! I wrote a quick guide to what will be blooming this month, check it out! And you're welcome!

I recently made some changes to the website to make some information easier to find.

Finally, just wanted to give a quick reminder that we'll be at the Breakfast with the Easter Bunny event in Mayfield on Saturday from 8am-12pm.

Enjoy your weekend and #LoveTheLifeYouLive,

Christina
